

Name _____

Date _____

D.O.L Plus – Week 15

1. Why do we have different seasons? Dina asked.
2. We have different seasons because of the tilt of the earth's axis.
3. The earth's axis are an imaginary line running through its center.
4. The earth tilts on its axis the part tilting toward the sun has summer.
5. The earth spins around once every twenty-four hours
6. Does the spinning cause day and night to occur
7. The earth is always traveling around the sun it doesn't ever pause.
8. The earth goes around the sun and the earth also spins like a top.
9. The four seasons are spring, summer, autumn, and winter.
10. In the United States, the longest day is June 21.